

PLEADS FOR FREEDOM OF THE PRESS

TRIBUNE ATTORNEY POINTS TO DANGER OF ITS SUPPRESSION

Bases Plea on Broad Historical and Constitutional Grounds—Says This Suit if Won by City Would Effectually Suppress Paper—Tells What Press Has Done in Past

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Pleas for freedom of the press on broad historical and constitutional grounds, were heard today when the $10,000,000 libel suit of the City of Chicago against the Chicago Tribune was called before Judge Harry M. Fisher in the circuit court of Cook county. Weymouth Kirkland, of counsel for the newspaper, consumed the entire court day with arguments on a general demurrer filed against the suit and announced that he would take up collateral questions when court reconvenes tomorrow morning.

Twice Judge Fisher commented. In the first instance he cut short Mr. Kirkland's presentation of a statement that the city was an arm of government and not merely the corporation under the capacity of which the suit was brought. The court said he would assume this to be true until the city legal forces had a chance to prove the contrary, if they desired to do so.

NON UNION MEN ARE ROUTED IN CHICAGO FIGHT

Protest Made to Landis Against Police Protection

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Forty non-union carpenters were put to flight today following a fight with other workmen, employed in rebuilding the Northwestern Grain Elevator here, which was wrecked by an explosion last spring.

The trouble occurred about the same time that Thomas S. Kearney, president of the building trades council was protesting to Judge Landis against police protection for non-union workers and William Lehake, president of the Associated Builders was pointing out the necessity for protecting non-union carpenters who were employed following the refusal of union carpenters to accept Judge Landis wage award of $1 an hour.

Workmen of other trades protested as soon as the non-union carpenters appeared at the elevator today. Words led to blows and finally stones were hurled at the non-union men. A riot call was turned in but by the time the police arrived the last non-union man had disappeared from the scene.

CHARGE ATTEMPT AT EGG MONOPOLY

Chicago, Sept. 22.—Charges that the Chicago packing interests were attempting to frame an egg monopoly thru the Fordney tariff bill were made today in resolutions adopted at the convention of the American Association of the Baking Industry, which at its closing session changed its name to the American Bakers Association.

If the present Fordney provisions go thru, the resolutions declared, it will result in tightening up the local egg market and advancing the price of eggs to the bakers and all domestic consumption.

ELEVEN HUNDRED IS DEATH TOLL SO FAR IN EXPLOSION

Desolation Equals Anything at Verdun or Flanders

(By The Associated Press)
MANNHEIM, Germany, Sept. 22.—Desolation and ruins alone remain of what was once the flourishing town of Oppau. The town had 5,500 residents, of which a majority of the men engaged in the chemical works were killed or wounded. Soldiers in French uniforms are clearing away the wreckage, picking up the dead and injured as after a big battle.

Eleven hundred dead and four thousand injured is the latest estimate of the disaster yesterday which caused a greater number of casualties in the Mannheim-Ludwigshafen district than the four years of war.

The desolation around Oppau equals anything seen at Verdun or in Flanders over a similar area. Hundreds of persons are digging in the ruins for the bodies of relatives or friends, nearly a thousand of which have been recovered thus far, thirty-six hours after the explosion from the gaping, funnel-like hole where the Badische works formerly stood, there are still to be heard moaning and cries of the wounded, while the soldiers search for possible survivors.

Twenty-five hundred of the injured are reported to have passed thru the hospitals of the surrounding cities.

Crater Filling With Water
The vast crater is slowly filling with water and it may never be known how many victims found a grave there. All mutilated and still living animals crawling amidst the twisted girders and blocks of concrete are being put out of their misery. The fireman and relief workers have not yet been able to discard their gas masks.

The thirty second army corps of the French army is in complete charge of the area and every available French medical officer had arrived early this morning to cooperate with the German physicians and surgeons. The French and German Red Cross are cooperating and a big German sanitary train has brought large quantities of medical supplies. The German officials thanked General Degoutte for the prompt manner in which the French army came to the assistance of the victims.

The most of his staff were sent to the surrounding towns to enlist the mayors and people in the relief plan in which the labor unions are uniting. Several of the funds have already assumed large proportions.

From Frankenthal, four miles away there was a steady exodus of the population, in which bandaged heads and arms in slings were conspicuous. The village of Edigheim was badly wrecked and it has not been possible to rescue some of the victims who are known to be under the debris.

Whole Families Wiped Out.
At Oppau, whole families were completely wiped out, about three hundred bodies having already been placed in the adjoining cemetery awaiting burial. The Mannheim hospitals are crowded with injured, more than 400 persons having suffered from the explosion in this city.

Several French soldiers were killed and many wounded when the force of the Oppau explosion wrecked the French barracks at Eisenheim. A train which had just left the station was blown off the tracks, plowing thru the woods and sheds where French soldiers of occupation were quartered.

The experts who are inquiring into the cause said that the explosion probably occurred in the course of tests of the compression of a new gas, the properties of which were insufficiently known. Primarily, it is reported, the disaster was caused by the explosion of fifteen tons of ammonium sulphate in the preparation of a new gas in which the pressure of 200 atmospheres and a temperature between 500 and 700 degrees centigrade were needed.

GET FINGER PRINTS OF PRESIDENT HARDING
Washington, Sept. 22.—President Harding "submitted" to having his finger prints made today during a call at the white house by delegates to the annual convention here of the International Association for Identification. The delegates, including many internationally known detectives and criminologists, explained briefly to the president the methods and advantages of the finger print identification and their invitation to have his "print made" was accepted.

Farrington Leads Fight Against Lewis

(By The Associated Press)

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 22.—Led by Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois Coal Miners, the anti-administration element in the convention of the United Mine Workers of America, fought today for the convention's rejection of the recommendation of John L. Lewis, international president, to require the Illinois officials to give an itemized accounting for $27,000 spent in an unauthorized strike two years ago. The fight with the administration's supporters which continued thruout the day without a test of strength will be resumed at the convention sessions tomorrow.

Debate, however, showed a division among the Illinois delegates, some of them opposing Farrington's stand.
Gomer Davis of Coulterville, Ill., offered an amendment to Lewis' recommendation, proposing that the union's executive board

HARDING ASKS SUPPORT FOR THE RED CROSS

Meeting Will be Held at Columbus October 4 to 8

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—President Harding in a statement addressed to the American people called attention tonight to the national convention of the Red Cross to be held in Columbus, Ohio, next month and invited support for it. The statement follows:
"To the American People:
"The executive committee of the American Red Cross has arranged for a national convention to be held at Columbus, Ohio, October 4-8 inclusive. Its particular object is the assembling of as many as possible of the great number of devoted men and women who undertake voluntarily service in behalf of humanity during the world war. Many of them are still giving time and activity to the permanent program of the Red Cross and the convention will concern itself with a discussion of those activities as they bear upon the present and future welfare of the nation.

A series of public meetings will be addressed by distinguished speakers, and the convention will be brought to a close by a pageant setting forth in attractive the history of the American Red Cross and the program of service mapped out for the future.
"As president of the American National Red Cross, I invite all who have at heart the continuation of the helpful and patriotic service of this organization to join in every consistent way all efforts to insure the success of this convention.
Warren G. Harding."

GLOOM NO LONGER
JUSTIFIED SAYS
GOVERNOR HARDING

(By The Associated Press)
CHARLOTTE, N. C., Sept. 22.—Gloomy forebodings of last winter with respect to the banking situation are no longer justified and can be dismissed Governor Harding declared in an address here tonight at the Made-in-Carolina exposition.

"The banking situation has greatly improved," Mr. Harding said, "and altho the process of readjustment has not been completed, the corner has been turned and that we have passed the most acute stage of the readjustment period."

Governor Harding said that in the immediate future much would depend on agricultural developments and the manner in which this year's crops were marketed.

FIND EVIDENCE FOR HIGHTOWER FAIL TO IDENTIFY BODIES OF MEN

(By The Associated Press)
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 22.—Inquiry into the murders of three men whose mutilated bodies were found near the right-of-way of the Missouri Pacific railroad Wednesday at Dupon, Ill., today failed to reveal any positive identifications, or definite clues as to the slayers.
A dispatch from Bigelow, Ark., stated that one body is believed to be that of Caleb Wilton, age 19, who left that place a few days ago to join his mother at New Washington, Ohio.

A clew which East St. Louis authorities believe supports the supposition that all three men were killed by the same man was the attack Wednesday night on Jacob Wyers of Chicago, alleged to have been made by a crazed negro. Wyers was enroute to Nokomis in a box car when the negro joined him, and after asking Wyers for food attacked him. Wyers is now in a Graceland City hospital.

Descriptions of the men have been sent broadcast in an effort to identify them.

WILL RETURN TO LONDON OCTOBER 1

LONDON, Sept. 22.—Altho Premier Lloyd George has virtually recovered from his recent illness, it is understood that he will not return to London until about October 1. Pending his return there will be no meeting of the entire cabinet.

The premier however, is in close touch with all his colleagues regarding the reply to Eamonn DeValera and has personally consulted some of them. Consequently he will be in a position to communicate the considered reply of the whole government. It is the expectation here tonight that Mr. DeValera will receive the premier's answer at the end of this week or the beginning of next. It is felt that the Irish situation will not thereafter develop with such rapidity as to necessitate another cabinet meeting in Scotland.

SHERMAN GIVES GRAPHIC ACCOUNT OF FRISCO PARTY

Said it Was Supposed That Miss Rappe Had "Bun On"

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—District Attorney Swann today obtained from Lowell Sherman, motion picture actor a graphic account of the party in San Francisco who had for an epilogue the death of Virginia Rappe.

Sherman who attended the party staged in the rooms of "Fatty" Arbuckle, now facing a charge of murder was located by the district attorney's office after he had jumped off the Twentieth Century at Harmon, N. Y., yesterday, and disappeared in an automobile with a red haired woman.

Found in his apartment here, Sherman explained that the woman was his wife, that he had sought to elude publicity and not Mr. Swann, and that he had been waiting for an invitation to appear at the district attorney's office. He professed himself ready to return to the Pacific Coast to testify at the Arbuckle trial.

An assertion which appeared several times in Sherman's formal statement mailed tonight to District Attorney Brady in San Francisco was that those who had attended the party had not felt great concern over Miss Rappe's illness, the consensus of opinion being that she simply had a "bun on." Sherman declared he never had asked Arbuckle what had occurred between him and the girl after they had entered his bedroom and closed the door and Arbuckle never had told him.

"Everybody was feeling the effects of whisky and gin," according to Sherman and a phonograph was making a mad racket.
After cold bath had failed to revive the girl and she had been put to bed Sherman said that at the suggestion of Arbuckle he had cleared the suite of guests and dismissed the matter from his mind, not taking the girl's illness seriously.

Did Not Express Opinion
"Arbuckle did not express to me an opinion as to what was the matter with the girl," said Sherman. "I did not see Arbuckle put his arms around the girl before she went into the bedroom, or put his hands upon her. Arbuckle was sitting in the chair next to the sofa which she sat. He was sitting with a drink in his hand, laughing and talking."

Asserting that Mrs. Delmont, another guest did not seem to be at all upset about anything that had happened to Miss Rappe, Sherman said:
"I went back to Los Angeles with Arbuckle the next afternoon. I never saw Miss Rappe after that and never inquired about her because I did not take any of it seriously. I do not know whether Mr. Arbuckle communicated with her or asked about her. If he did not do so in my presence,

"I never asked Arbuckle what he thought was the matter with the girl. He seemed to have the same opinion as everyone else—that the girl had a 'bun on' and was ill. He did not seem in any way upset about it."

I never heard Miss Rappe express an opinion as to what was the matter with her at any time. Sherman made the following statement to newspapermen:
"I came here openly on the Twentieth Century. I spoke with the newspaper boys in Chicago and have been trying to dodge nobody. I am ready and willing at all times to tell whatever I know."

Yesterday I met my wife at Harmon, N. Y., as per arrangement. I wanted to avoid publicity. "I waited all day yesterday at my home for a call to come from Mr. Swann's office but I did not hear from him. I don't want the public to get any idea I am trying to run away at all."

WOMEN PACK COURT ROOM AT HEARING OF FATTY ARBUCKLE

Most Time During Day is Taken Up with Testimony of Attending Physicians and Miss Halstrom, the Nurse Who Attended Miss Rappe—Arbuckle Shows Great Interest

(By The Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 22.—The police court examination of Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle, which will determine whether the film comedian is to be bound over to the superior court for trial on a charge of the murder of Miss Virginia Rappe, began here today in a court room filled almost exclusively with women.

Three witnesses who saw Miss Rappe's body after her death September 9, which it is charged resulted from injuries suffered at a drinking party four days before in Arbuckle's suite at the Hotel St. Francis, testified that they observed bruises on her limbs and body. Two of them, the surgeon who performed the post mortem examination and the autopsy surgeon, said death was from a ruptured bladder, caused, in their opinion, by external force.

The autopsy surgeon also told of a small puncture he said he found in the left arm of the body, which he attributed to a hypodermic needle.

At tomorrow's session of Judge Sylvain Lazarus' court it is expected there will be introduced testimony regarding incidents at the hotel party, where, according to witnesses at the coroner's inquest, Miss Rappe was found moaning and screaming after having been alone in a room with Arbuckle.

District Attorney Matthew A. Brady said it had not been determined whether Al Semmacher, Miss Rappe's manager, who is reported to have testified before the grand jury at Los Angeles that Arbuckle had made admissions regarding his treatment of Miss Rappe, would be called tomorrow.

Arbuckle Listens Intently.
The bulky film actor listened intently to today's testimony, his face bearing the same serious and grave expression it has worn ever since his arrest nearly two weeks ago. Mrs. Minta Durfee Arbuckle, his wife from whom he had been separated for five years but who came here from New York Monday sat at his side with her mother, Mrs. Flora Durfee.

Women jammed the corridors of the hall of justice for nearly two hours before the court session began and a dozen six foot policemen had their hands full keeping them away from the court room door. A group of men gathered in a corner in hope of being admitted were chased unceremoniously to the street floor, and women who could show no credentials for admission were ordered to stand on the stairs to allow movement in the corridor.

The women were given the preference because Judge Lazarus' court is largely devoted to women's cases. Delegations from the Women's Vigilant Committee from clubs and civic organizations packed the court room to its doors. A few male attaches of other courts found refuge behind the steel bars of the prisoners' dock. Arbuckle himself sat at the attorney's table.

Doctors Testify.
Dr. Shelby Strange, relief autopsy surgeon, who performed the autopsy on Miss Rappe and Dr. William Ophuls of the Stanford University Medical School who made post mortem examinations were the principal witnesses today.

Dr. Strange said he found bruises on Miss Rappe's right upper arm apparently caused by finger marks, two bruises on the lower abdomen and others on the thighs and shine, the cause of which he was unable to state. Dr. Ophuls and Miss Grace Halston, a hospital nurse who was present at the post mortem both corroborated Dr. Strange's description of the bruises and coroner's photographs of the body also were offered as evidence. A tear in the bladder wall about three inches in length and long was described by Dr. Strange who said that the bladder and other organs had been preserved by Dr. Ophuls in a chemical solution, the tendency of which would be to shrink the tissues. He said that he believed that death came from peritonitis resulting from the ruptured bladder and that the rupture was caused by some external force.

Dr. Ophuls said he was called in for a post mortem examination by Dr. E. M. Rumwell, the physician who attended Miss Rappe in most of her last illness. He found the abdomen "horribly distended" he said, as a result of the rupture and a congestion of blood in several organs of the lower abdomen. The rupture he surmised was

MEMBERS OF EDUCATIONAL COMMISSION

Appointments Made By Governor Small Thursday

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 22.—Members of the Illinois Educational Commission created by the 52nd general assembly as an investigating body to study the entire educational system of the state and recommend changes to the next legislature, was appointed tonight by Governor Small.

A. M. Shelton of Crystal Lake, county superintendent of schools of Henry County is chairman. The other members are:
Senator William S. Gray of Coatsburg; Representative Harry Wilson, of Pinckneyville; Dean C. M. Thompson, University of Illinois, and Mrs. M. H. Liber, of Winnetka, chairman of the department of applied science, Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs.

Governor Small is ex-officio member of the commission. The law provides that one member should be selected from each house of the general assembly and that one member should be a woman.

Revision of the school laws for unification and standardization of the entire system; equalization of school taxes and sources of revenue are among the duties of the commission, Governor Small said.

The bill creating the commission was introduced by Senator John Disley of Reoria.

Small's Statement.
In announcing the appointments Governor Small said:

"The solution of the school problem in the open country is of vital importance to the welfare of our commonwealth. City schools have their own local educational leaders and supervising teachers. They absorb the greater parts of the graduates of our normal schools and our universities, but the villages and one-room schools can make no such boasts.

"I realize that our cities have great problems in the financing of their schools, that they devote the exacting attention of this commission. But the greatest educational problem that has been untouched lies with the schools of the open country.

"I have asked Superintendent A. M. Shelton, that the commission give special effort to our perplexing rural school problems that school expenditures and efforts and results may be commensurate with each other. I have every reason to believe that the commission will offer so the next general assembly a plan that will eliminate possible educational and financial waste as well as gross inequalities that every boy and girl in Illinois may secure on equal terms and conditions a liberal education."

has also been talked of as a candidate.

Mr. Sherman was succeeded last March by William B. McKinley as United States senator, following notice by Mr. Sherman that he was ready to quit politics and resume the practice of law in Springfield.

Since then things, politically and otherwise, have happened in Illinois, and as was stated by one of former Senator Sherman's intimates: "He feels the breath of life along the keel."

"Sherman is our candidate for state senator if he will run, and we have every reason to believe he will," was the statement of a leader of the Sangamon county Republican organization that is prepared to go the distance against any program that may be made by Governor Small.

Mr. Sherman has been speaker of the Illinois House of Representatives and was the chairman of the last judicial convention in this district; at which the Morgan county delegates stood alone against the re-nomination of one Republican and two Democrats in circuit judges—Judges Smith, Jones and Burton.

The mention of Senator Sherman's name, and his well-known aggressive qualities will certainly assure a lively, possibly an acrimonious fight at the primaries, but as Sangamon county, always takes all the plums in sight Morgan county has little chance either for representative or senator altho having plenty of good material, good men who might make worthy members free from factional politics and with ability to serve the state for the good of the state tho this possibly may not be said of all of the above mentioned. E. O. Phillips, in the Tribune, says, "the primary fight for the senatorship in the district, which includes Sangamon and Morgan counties, promises to be the most picturesque of any next April's senatorial combats. Already it is the understanding in Springfield that the April primary is to be a showdown between the Small and the Richard M. Sullivan organizations so far as the legislative contests are concerned."

KIWANIS CLUB MEMBERS HEAR FINE ADDRESSES

Brief Talks Made at Luncheon Thursday by Dr. Lincoln Wirt, Dr. Stephen Capps and L. B. Sharp.

Members of the local Kiwanis club met at the Peacock Inn on Thursday for their regular luncheon program. Among the guests of the day were Dr. Lincoln Wirt, Dr. Stephen Capps, L. B. Sharp, Judge Paul Samuel, Attorney J. Neiger, of Virginia, R. T. Beach and W. D. James. Preceding the luncheon Mr. Beach sang with fine effect "The Perfect Day," with Willard Wesner as accompanist.

The first speaker was Dr. Wirt, who is associated with the Near East relief organization. Dr. Wirt told briefly of his travels in Armenia and of the terrible condition of the residents of that country as a result of the Turkish persecution. Dr. Wirt said that the gifts of America have been of untold value to the sufferers and that the beneficence of this country will go down in history as one of the finest examples of man's humanity to man.

Dr. Stephen Capps told something of his work in making a geological survey of Alaska, in which he has been engaged for the past several years. He stated that the work in Alaska has been in progress since 1898, when as a result of the gold rush this country first realized the great mineral wealth of the northern territory.

Two expeditions have been sent into the territory, one to study the topographical nature of the region and the other the geological. The work of these expeditions is not yet completed, and until it is the findings of the surveyors will be kept secret.

Mr. Sharp, organizer of Community Service, Inc., was the final speaker of the afternoon. Mr. Sharp explained that he is here to confer with various individuals and groups or organizations interested in community recreation. The speaker said that the organization is non-sectarian, non-political and not conducted for profit, and hence unhampered in its operations. Mr. Sharp told of the success his organization has had in meeting in various communities the problem of recreation.

MISS STALEY.
(By Emsley Moore).

The passing of Miss Ann Rebecca Staley, Thursday morning, marks the dwindling ranks of the early settlers or their children.

Miss Staley came from Frederick City, Maryland, with her parents, in her early childhood; and it was a family of quality to which she belonged as a sister of Mrs. William C. Stevenson and of Mrs. William T. Craig.

Jacksonville Female Academy graduated its first class in 1845, with two members; Miss Staley was graduated from that time honored institution in the large class of 1852. She taught school for a time in St. Paul, Minnesota, Springfield and Jacksonville, Illinois. She enjoyed young people so it is easy to think that she was a good teacher.

She was a handsome and attractive young lady, and it was an easy guess that the students of Illinois College made her acquaintance, and some cherished it for long years.

A large part of her life was spent in the country home of her sister, Mrs. Stevenson, five miles southeast of this city, and at the hospitable Stevenson residences here in Jacksonville.

Miss Staley's bright and pleasing manner made her the friend of Academy girls and College boys, as the years bore her along the journey of life, and she was a prized confidant and wise adviser of these youthful people. They were made welcome also by Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson. After the latter were called away Miss Staley found the second generation continuing her home with her nephew, Mr. Henry Stevenson of West College avenue.

Westminster Presbyterian church was organized May 13, 1860, and Miss Staley was one of the charter members, probably the last of that goodly company.

"In the Christian's home in glory There is rest for the weary." Of late years Miss Staley had been in declining health, and unable to meet her friends as frequently as she wished.

One greater concern of her mid-life days was her warm interest in the success of the Union army when Lincoln sent the "Boys in Blue" to the fray.

It has been given to few of our single ladies to mingle so long and happily with the young, and to take part with her older friends for so many years in social life and the development of the church to which she was so devoted.

A bright and charming circle of people for many years surrounded "College Hill," and among them Miss Staley was always to be considered.

Dr. Miller is one of the oldest Masons in Central Illinois and his devotion to the order is a matter of common knowledge. The qualities of heart and mind that have made this long time resident beloved by his neighbors and friends in the home community have characterized him also in his Masonic connections. Works of criticism or unfriendliness for Dr. Miller have never been spoken and he has come to be known as "a grand old man." The honor that has just come to him is richly deserved and the action taken will be pleasing to all members of the fraternity in this area.

EARLY THURSDAY MORNING
Members of the local police force were kept busy for a while early Thursday morning, as there were two burglar alarms and report of a chicken theft all within a short time. The first call came from the residence of J. W. Fanning, 250 East Lafayette avenue at about 3 o'clock. Mrs. Fanning, who saw the burglar, described him as a white man of large size. About $9 was taken at this residence.

The home of Edward Brodgen on East Lafayette avenue was also burglarized early Thursday morning, $12 being secured by the thieves here. The theft of several pieces of silverware is also reported by Mr. Brodgen.

The third alarm came from the residence at 1018 West Lafayette avenue, where it was reported that a thief was in the chicken house.

THE WORLD'S BEST BAD MAN
William S. Hart in "THE WHISTLE"
His days were ruled by the little tyrant on top of his town's big factory. But his heart was ruled by his motherless boy.
Then one day a broken, flying belt—and little Danny was gone! An eye for an eye, a son for a son!
So the soul-stricken father fled with the millionaire mill-owner's child and brought him up as his own.
Worked for him, loved him, and— But the rest is a story you won't soon forget. A story made of the deepest, finest things that human life can know.

HOME NEAR ALEXANDER IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Home of Harold Strawn on O. F. Conklin Farm is Total Loss as Result of Fire—Other Alexander News Notes.

Alexander, Sept. 22.—Fire completely destroyed the home of Harold Strawn on the O. F. Conklin farm two miles east of Alexander at about 9:30 o'clock Thursday morning. The flames were the result of an exploding oil stove in the kitchen of the dwelling and had gained such headway when discovered that it was impossible to extinguish them before the house had completely burned.

Mrs. Strawn was alone in the house at the time and by the aid of John Colwell, the mail carrier and a companion succeeded in getting the piano from the burning dwelling. One or two other articles of furniture were saved, but the clothing of the family and most of the furniture was destroyed along with the house.

Mr. Conklin, who owned the house, was not at his home in Jacksonville Thursday morning and knew nothing of the fire until late in the evening. It is understood that Mr. Conklin's loss is pretty well covered by insurance, and that Mr. Strawn also carried a considerable amount of insurance on his household effects. The house was one of seven rooms and was in excellent condition.

SUPPOSED VAGRANT WORTH $100,000

Chicago, Sept. 22.—The body of an aged woman known as "French Sall," at the Harrison Street police station, where she frequently has been booked on such charges as vagrancy and begging, today was given a funeral fitting a millionaire instead of being interred in the potters' field as had been planned.

The undertaker found more than $100,000 in stocks and bonds concealed in the supposed vagrant's clothing. The body was found in a gas filled room yesterday. Her real name is not known.

Bruise Causes Debate. Miss Halston's statement that that she believed the bruises on Miss Rappe's arm were made by the grip of another person prompted a lively debate over its admissibility between Frank Dominguez, Arbuckle's chief counsel and Milton T. U'ren, the assistant district attorney who conducted the examination. Judge Lazarus finally let the testimony go in with the qualification that he would not attach much weight to it.

The defense did not cross-examine any of the witnesses much to the surprise of the prosecution, according to U'ren who said he had not prepared for the use of more witnesses today. At the request of Dominguez who said he had had no opportunity to rest between the time that he concluded a trial in Los Angeles, yesterday and his appearance in court here today, Judge Lazarus put the hearing over until two o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Miss Bambina Maud's Delmont, the complaining witness, Alice Blake and Zeh Prevost will be among the witnesses tomorrow the district attorney announced.

Mrs. Delmont, accompanied Miss Rappe and Al Semmacher on the trip from Los Angeles, Fresno and San Francisco that ended in Miss Rappe's death. She, Semmacher and two other women witnesses were present at Arbuckle's party.

Semmacher who called the district attorney by telephone yesterday from Los Angeles to request that expense money be sent him so he would be able to come to San Francisco to testify, arrived here today by automobile. He was taken to the district attorney's office immediately and detained there during the hearing.

Dr. Arthur Beardslee, the house physician at the St. Francis Hotel, who attended Miss Rappe for a day after the party, had not reached San Francisco tonight from his hunting trip in the Sierra Nevada Mountains, from which he had been called home by authorities. During the session Arbuckle took time to read a special delivery letter sent him from Los Angeles. He seemed greatly pleased with it and brightened somewhat.

BLOOMINGTON MAN ACCUSED OF FORGERY

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Sept. 22.—A charge of forgery against W. H. Singley, a prominent young automobile dealer of this city was the outcome today of a hearing in the circuit court in a suit for debt against Singley and his father, D. R. Singley, by the State Bank of Bloomington for claims of $12,000.

Young Singley testified that he signed the notes to the bank but refused to answer whether or not his father had signed them, altho the father's signature appeared on the notes. Later the father was called and testified that he did not sign the notes nor give any one authority to sign for him.

Thereupon the suit against the father was dismissed and young Singley was arrested on a warrant of forgery. He is in jail tonight in default of $4,000 bonds.

D. R. Singley, the father, is a wealthy resident of Tazewell county.

ANTI-BEER BILL MAKES TROUBLE IN U. S. SENATE

Subject of Much Debate But Makes No Headway

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—The anti-beer bill virtually monopolized senate attention today but made no headway.

The legislation, the anti-saloon league's activities, and acts of federal prohibition agents were scored in an address of three hours by Senator Shields, Democrat, Tennessee, and later the senate got into a parliamentary tangle which was not unravelled when it adjourned until tomorrow.

A motion by Senator Sterling, Republican, South Dakota, in charge of the bill to give it right of way and displace the pending Panama tolls measure was made late in the day but after a wrangle as to whether the motion was debatable adjournment was taken without reaching a decision.

The outlook for the bill was complicated further by announcement of plans to call up the tax revision bill tomorrow. The question before the senate was whether the beer measure should be held until disposed of blocking the tax bill and possibly the peace treaties. All sorts of predictions were in circulation but it appeared possible that some decision would be reached tomorrow.

LEVIN ASKS FOR OTHERS TO SIT IN HIS TRIAL

Would Take it from Civil Service Commission

By Associated Press, SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 22.—Isador Levin, ousted Secretary of the Illinois Civil Service Commission in a petition tonight demanded trial by a jury of three disinterested persons instead of the commission which dismissed him last week on charges of inefficiency and cruelty to his child.

Levin's hearing was set for tomorrow after he made sweeping charges of violation of the civil service laws against the Small administration and demanded a trial. Declaring that his dismissal was made for political reasons, Levin presented a list of 500 names from which he asked the commission to select a "jury."

The list had the name of Lorenzo Taft, sculptor and contained many names prominent in literature, art, science, education, religion and medicine.

The hearing is set for 10 a. m., tomorrow in the commissioner's offices.

MARINELLO SHOP IN FINE NEW QUARTERS

Announcement was made today by Mrs. Hattie Montgomery that she has moved her Marinello parlors into much larger quarters on the seventh floor of the Ayers National bank building. The parlors were formerly in room 711, and are now in 705 and 706, four rooms composing the suite. All these rooms present a very attractive appearance for the opening of the parlors. Brown wicker furniture and blue draperies are to be found in the reception room. Walls of the work rooms are French gray, and draperies are dark blue.

This is the eighth season of Mrs. Montgomery's business in Jacksonville. Two expert assistants from Chicago will join her soon. (Adv.)

FORMER NEIGHBOR OF MONROE'S IS NOW IN CUSTODY

William Kinney of Temple Will be Questioned

(By The Associated Press) CADILLAC, Mich., Sept. 22.—William Kinney, 37 years of age, was taken into custody on his farm near Temple, Clare county today, for questioning in connection with the murder of William Monroe, his wife and 17 year old daughter, Neva at Dowagiac. Kinney was brought here tonight by Sheriff Sherman Wyman, of Cass county and local authorities and probably will be taken to Dowagiac tomorrow.

The prisoner is a former resident of Dowagiac and before leaving that village said to have had trouble with Monroe over alleged attentions to the latter's daughter, Neva. Sheriff Wyman claimed to have evidence Kinney was in Dowagiac last Saturday the day the murders are believed to have occurred. Kinney, however, set up an alibi which was supported by his wife and several neighbors. Kinney, officers stated claimed he was at his home over the last week-end while his wife declared relatives visited them there on Saturday.

When arrested Kinney appeared to be unaware of the Monroe murders and had not been told tonight of the tragedy or the connection officers suspect him of having with it.

Sheriff Wyman came here yesterday, instead of going to Detroit as he had announced before leaving Dowagiac. He told newspapermen tonight he was inclined to the belief that Herbert Smith detained at Kalamazoo yesterday and held since in jail, had nothing to do with the slayings. Smith, like Kinney, was formerly a neighbor of the Monroes at Dowagiac and both were reported to have had trouble with the Monroe family.

Shows Evidence of Assault DOWAGIAC, Mich., Sept. 22.—While Cass county authorities today continued their efforts to solve the mystery surrounding the murder of William Monroe, his wife and 17 year old daughter, Neva, the physicians appearing before the coroner's jury investigating the tragedy testified marks found on the body of Neva and her ten year old sister, Aridith, who was beaten with the club with which the others were killed, indicated the girls might have been subjected to a criminal assault. Aridith at first believed fatally injured continued today to show signs of improvement but physicians said her condition still is critical.

The testimony at the inquest which conformed to statements previously made by two of the doctors was the outstanding development of the case today.

The funeral of the three victims was held this afternoon.

HOW MUCH IS SET OF FALSE TEETH WORTH?

Chicago, Sept. 22.—A jury in Judge Wells' municipal court was called on to decide whether a set of false teeth was worth $5,509.50. Herbert P. Crane, Sr., wealthy retired farmer was sued by Dr. E. A. Schmuck, a dentist, for the amount in payment of his services in fitting Mr. Crane with a set of teeth. The dentist said he figured his bill at $20 an hour for himself and the same charge for his laboratory assistant. A verdict is expected tomorrow.

WILL INVESTIGATE LOCAL PHONE RATE

Hearing Was Held In Springfield Thursday—Local Men Present at Session.

The Illinois Telephone company's application for increase in rates was continued at Springfield yesterday until the commission's engineers can investigate and make a report.

Mayor E. E. Crabtree, City Attorney Walter Bellatti, Alderman Ebnie and Henry Frisch, Hugh Breeden and R. Y. Rowe, the last three representing the Chamber of Commerce were present.

Judge William E. Thomson represented South Jacksonville, Murrayville, Woodson and Manchester.

Most of the time was taken up with the presentation of figures by G. A. Geisen, a valuation expert for the telephone company. He was cross examined by representatives of the cities and towns involved and a number of times his testimony was attacked.

A. H. Kane of Roodhouse presented a petition protesting against the poor service furnished. He was followed by Hon. H. T. Rainey, of Carrollton, who argued against the valuation placed on the properties which he was said to be entirely too high.

After all of the arguments had been heard, the commission adourned until such time as the engineers and accountants of the commission have made an investigation of the properties and completed their report. The members of the commission evidenced a desire to make a thorough investigation before taking any definite action.

GET TOGETHER MEETING HELD

A "Get Together Meeting" was held in the Pilgrim Memorial last night in charge of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. of Illinois College for the new students.

The first part of the meeting was devoted to games. The students were divided into groups representing the various colleges against which Illinois plays, and a track meet was held. Every one enjoyed a fine time and it did not take them long to "get together." The chairman in charge of the successful entertainment was John Butcher.

After the games several speeches were made. Elmer Nickle, president of the Y. M. C. A. gave a brief outline of the history of that organization. Miss Marie Thomas, president of the Y. W. C. A. talked about the character of the Y. W. Dr. Swift, a member of the faculty, then addressed them in behalf of all the other organizations of the college.

Two musical numbers comprised the last part of the program, a vocal solo by Miss Ruth Armstrong, assistant in the voice department of the Conservatory, and a trombone solo by Russell Pinkerton.

VARIED PROGRAM AT MEETING OF FORUM

Summary of Chamber of Commerce Work Made By President Rowe—Dr. Wirt Told Graphic Story of Near East Conditions.

The open forum meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was held last night with a fine attendance of members. Dr. Carl E. Black, president of the forum, opened the meeting with brief remarks. A resume of Chamber of Commerce activities was given by President R. Y. Rowe; Rev. M. L. Pontius explained the plan for coordinating campaigns for philanthropic purposes and an address was made by Dr. Lincoln Wirt on conditions in the Near East.

Dr. Black spoke on the purpose of the forum and its relation to the Chamber as a purely advisory one, and stated that all changes in basic policies should be brought up and then discussed at another meeting so that no hasty action can be taken upon any matter of importance. The forum should be devoid of politics and is for the purpose of serving the Chamber as a whole. The matter of a set date for the forum meetings was discussed with the result that it was decided to have the stated meetings on Monday at 7:30 p. m. Justus Wright then led in mass singing. Everyone participated enthusiastically in the singing of "Battle Hymn of the Republic" and "In the Good Old Summer Time."

A Summary of Work. R. Y. Rowe, president of the Chamber, then briefly outlined the work of the organization during the last three months.

He told of the many projects under way at the present time, such as the sewer investigation; boulevard lighting on East State street to the depot, and on North Church street, from West State street to the Wabash depot; the trade extension program and the advertising through the county by automobilists; the work of the housing committee; the extension of the water system; the new hotel project; the much discussed rest room; the tourists' information bureau, free employment bureau, the room placement bureau. The committees in charge of the various projects are all doing excellent work. The roads committee has made fine reports concerning the Jacksonville-Decatur road, the contracts for which will be signed by October 4. The roads to the south are also to be improved in the near future.

The work of the Chamber has been well regulated and it was stated that the projects were being kept well within the limits of the budget. Some preventative measures have been taken against the passing of fraudulent checks and the Chamber has offered a reward of $100 for information leading to the conviction of any one passing such checks.

Co-ordinated Charities. Following Mr. Rowe's report, Rev. M. L. Pontius briefly outlined the purpose of the coordination of the various charitable campaigns and told what has been done so far. The representatives that met at the Peacock Inn recently appointed a committee of seven to formulate a plan for this project. This committee is at work and will have something definite to offer in a short time.

Rev. Mr. Pontius then told of the greatest obstacles to the success of this coordination. Paramount among these, he stated is community selfishness. He told of this great hindrance and explained the relations of the individual, organization and community. The individual is not as big as the organization, the organization is not as big as the community, so both must subject their desires to the good of that largest unit, the community. This will be the hardest thing to overcome. The organizations are not here to be served by the community, but to serve the community, and only those organizations that have this ideal will survive and grow. In order to make the campaign a success, the different organizations must reduce their budgets to the minimum figure.

The assembly was then delightfully entertained by two vocal solos by Mr. E. J. Beech of the Chicago Fire and Marine Insurance Co. Mr. Beech was only announced for one selection but the audience demanded another by his hearty applause.

The Story of Armenia. Dr. Black then introduced the speaker of the evening, Dr. Lincoln Wirt, of the Near East Relief organization. Dr. Wirt has recently returned from a trip of inspection thru the famine infested districts of Armenia and other Asia Minor countries, where he has been engaged for several years in the relief work. His purpose was primarily to tell what became of the sixty million dollars of Near East Relief money, but in his vivid and stirring address, he made more of a heart appeal.

He told of the part played in the war by this sadly oppressed country of Armenia. The remarkable result of the guerilla warfare engaged in by the 125,000 Armenian soldiers, who held up the German army enroute to the Holy Land to help the slowly retreating Boche forces there, and of how this tiny unit of starved and beaten men did more than any other unit to defeat the Germans, were told in truly colorful way. It was not until the eastern lines of the Germans broke that the western armies gave way. As long as the Kaiser had the support of the millions of Mohammedan peoples behind him he could fight indefinitely. But when this support crumbled the entire organization gave way. And this eastern support would have triumphed over the force of British under Gen. Allenby had it not been that the German reinforcements were delayed five months by the 125,000 Armenians, thus allowing the British time to destroy and scatter the other army. They then marched on the reinforcing army and defeated it, capturing the principal cities of Asia Minor and forever driving the Turk from the shrine of every Christian, the Holy Land.

Before, when the Pilgrim went to the Holy Land and visited the historic landmarks, he was greeted by Turkish beggars who begged for alms and cursed the "Christian dogs" under their breath. Now it is all different. The Pilgrim is greeted by a British Tommy, who says, "Hello, Yankee, you are welcome here."

A Dwindling People. Dr. Wirt then gave a sketch of the staunch and steadfast part the Armenian nation has played through the ages. It has ever remained true to the Cross and has chosen death rather than bow to the star and crescent, the symbol of Mohammedanism. Out of a once numerous nation there are only two million left. He related incident after incident, picturing the awful suffering and unmerciful persecution of this Christian people. He told of the awful plights of thousands of beautiful Armenian girls who are imprisoned in Turkish harems, many of whom can never be saved because of the tardy action of the other Christian countries.

The speaker said, "It is up to the United States to complete this great work. England cannot do it because it would cause an uprising of the many hostile peoples bordering and in her domains that would overwhelm her. France will not do it so the United States is the only one left that has the power and money to carry out this work to a successful completion."

The quota for Morgan county was set at $9,000 or enough to care for 150 Armenian orphans for one year, but in view of the co-ordination idea, Dr. Wirt stated that the quota would probably be lowered to about $5,000.

Those present were then served a light luncheon and enjoyed a social hour. The Near East Relief Committee held a meeting following Dr. Wirt's address and any members or guests who were interested in the campaign were invited to be present.

PLAN COOPERATION WITH HI Y CLUB

Ladies representing the various churches of the city met yesterday afternoon in the basement of the Ayers Bank and discussed plans for co-operating with the Hi Y Club during the coming school year.

It has always been the practice for some of the ladies of one of the churches to serve a supper to the boys before each meeting. The meeting yesterday was for the purpose of arranging a schedule for the suppers. The churches will serve the suppers in rotation and will serve four times. Eight churches have agreed to this making a total of thirty-two which will take care of the thirty-two weekly meetings of the club.

The churches will prepare the suppers for the club in the following order, State Street Presbyterian, Brooklyn, Northminister, Centenary M. E., First Baptist, Grace M. E., and Congregational and Christian.

THE JOY SHOW

"A factitious feast of frolic and frivolity" is the way the managers of the Famous Georgia Minstrels announce their coming to the Grand tonight.

The company numbers over forty people and these sons of joy will be seen in an elaborate production of up to date minstrelsy and vaudeville. The stage settings and wardrobe being compared to a spectacular production. The music, both instrumental and vocal being a prominent feature with the company, and the years this attraction has been before the public has given the management ample opportunity to study the public taste.

SENATORS WASTE VALUABLE TIME

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—The Ku Klux Klan and religious intolerance entered into the debate on the floor of the senate during discussion of the beer bill. Senator Watson, Democrat, Georgia, asserted that religious liberty had not been secured in the United States under the charter granted Lord Baltimore, while Senator Stanley, Democrat, Kentucky, insisted that "there was only one place in all the civilized world where man could worship his God and the dictator of his conscience and that was in the province of the Catholic nobleman, Lord Baltimore."

"I am here to fight intolerance" wherever it whets its knife and lights its torch in a ku klux camp in Georgia or whether in western Ohio it takes the form of these miserable general warrants," added Senator Stanley, referring in the latter case to the anti-Saloon league which has its headquarters at Westerville, Ohio. "I will meet the Ku Klux Klan issue when it comes up," declared Senator Watson. "Until some crime is proven against that society or some other secret society with which this country is honeycombed I will withhold my judgment until the guilt of the accused is decided by law."

RAISE FUND OF $100,000

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—A fund of $100,000 has been raised among friends of the late Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior in former President Wilson's cabinet, the income of which will be paid to Mrs. Lane for life. He died last May at Rochester, Minn., and left practically no estate. At Mrs. Lane's death the principal of the fund will be used as a memorial to her husband, probably an educational institution.

The fund, it was learned today, was started a few months ago by subscriptions from Herbert Hoover, Franklin D. Roosevelt and Adolph C. Miller, who was assistant secretary of the interior under Mr. Lane.

DECATUR WOMAN GAINS 20 POUNDS

Says Indigestion, Dizziness And Other Troubles Are Gone Now—Praises Tanlac.

"Besides getting complete relief from four years suffering I have actually gained twenty pounds by taking Tanlac," said Mrs. P. T. Travis, of 301 South Church street, Decatur, Ill.

"I never knew what it was to be hungry and what I ate disagreed with me. I was badly constipated, my tongue was thickly coated and in the mornings I always had a mean taste in my mouth.

"I also suffered terribly from pain in the back of my head and had dizzy spells. My hands and feet were clammy and cold and at times I was so nervous that I just felt like screaming out. Nothing seemed to help me, and I lost so much weight and strength that I didn't look like myself.

"I finally began taking Tanlac and it has made a new person of me. My appetite is splendid, and everything I eat agrees with me and I'm never troubled with constipation. I am free from those dizzy, fainting spells. My nerves are perfectly calm, and I have been built up so much in every way that I can do my housework and not feel the least bit worn out."

Tanlac is sold by the leading druggists everywhere.

WHERE ARE THE HITCHING RAILS THE FAIR CROWDS USED TO KNOW?

If some genius would visit the average town during fair week and then sit down and write a song about "The Hitching Rails of Yesteryear," he would probably touch many a responsive chord in the hearts of the crowd.

In the old days it was a question of getting in town early to find a place to back up the buggy draw the pole, slide it under the rig and lead the team over to the stable. Hitching rails were crowded long before the morning train came in carrying the Swiss bell ringers and Hon. William J. Bryan.

There's the same old hurry nowadays, only instead of hitching rails and stables the rush is for parking space and service stations. And, in the rush, one finds every make of automobile.

Some time ago he received a blank application from that state, and its return properly filled brought prompt notice of the bonus award. Pratt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Pratt, residing just north of town on the state road. He was employed in an automobile works at Detroit, when the war broke out, and enlisted here. Since the war was over he married one of the finest young girls of Jacksonville, and is settled with his parents, operating an auto truck between White Hall and Roodhouse engaged in the ice trade.

Wedding and Birthday Anniversary Dinner Given at Home of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Smith Wednesday.

White Hall, Sept. 22.—A combination wedding anniversary and birthday dinner was held Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb T. Smith on North Main street. It commemorated the 31st anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, and the 56th birthday of Mrs. Smith and Mrs. C. G. James, also of White Hall. Mrs. Smith's favorite organization, the Ladies' Aid society of the First Baptist church took hold of the event and included another honored guest, Mrs. Henry Smith, who celebrated her 58th birthday anniversary in this connection. The combination made a most notable occasion. Dinner guests to the number of forty were present from Glasgow, Jacksonville, Pike county and the immediate neighborhood of White Hall. These included Lieut. Fred C. Smith home on a furlough from Camp Pike, Ark., who has 23 years of service in the army to his credit and who is getting the erection of a fine new dwelling under way while he is back on furlough.

G. T. Smith spent his younger days in Jacksonville. He went to Akron, Ohio, and claimed his bride, and they soon after came to Glasgow, Scott county, where they remained two years, then residing seven years in Missouri, and seven years at Straut, Pike county. They came to White Hall fifteen years ago and established the market gardening business that has a place of greatest confidence among all our people. A RAIN-CROW RAISED BY HAND

On the 23rd of August a lady living on Sandusky street, found a bay rain-crow (American yellow billed cuckoo) on the pavement in the middle of the street. She came near running over it with her car. It seemed to be no parent bird about, and the baby was too young to fly, she decided that the best thing to do would be to take it out to Miss Jackson on South Church street, and see if she would adopt it. Miss Jackson was reluctant to undertake the job, as she knew it would be impossible for her to procure the proper food for the bird and she knew very little of the rain-crow's habits. However, when the little thing clasped her finger tightly with its beak, and gave the adult rain-crow call, she could not resist its appeal, and said she would take it and do the best she could with it.

The baby did not seem to be very frightened, and was willing enough to sit on Miss Jackson's finger for half an hour at a time. But he wouldn't open his mouth for food. All the food he got for the first three days was administered by forcible feeding. She held the bird in her left hand, pried his mouth open and held it open with her left thumb and finger, and poked the food down its throat with her right hand. She was tempted to name the bird Sylvia Parkhurst; but as unwillingness to open his mouth was his only fault, she gave him the less militant name of Rannie. On the third day Rannie began to shake his wings and open his mouth for food, after the manner of a well-conditioned bird.

But he had little appetite and evidently did not relish the food supplied. His wings and tail grew longer each day, but he did not gain in strength or ability to fly for nearly a week. He was not getting enough food for proper growth. Not until Miss Jackson accidentally held a carrot leaf up to him and he picked at it and ate eagerly several bits of the leaf which she broke off for him did he begin to pick up and eat better. From that time on he began to improve rapidly, and grow more tame and winning and pretty every day.

Most of the time since his adoption he has lived on the screened porch at Miss Jackson's home. She fastened up branches in several places on the porch and Rannie could climb and hop about them to his heart's content; and fly from one branch to another across the porch. His favorite roosting place at night was the branch that hung from the porch ceiling. Twice, when heavy winds came up in the night, Miss Jackson went down and moved Rannie from his swaying perch to a more solid one against the wall of the house.

To see Rannie take a bath was a memorable sight. At first he would not get into the water at all. On day Miss Jackson thought he wanted a bath, so she took a carrot leaf and dipped it in water and sprinkled Rannie's back with it. That was about a week after she got him. He was sitting on his perch, and as soon as he felt the water on his back he stretched out one wing; then quickly turned on his perch and spread out the other wing. He seemed to enjoy the wetting thoroughly, and made a pretty picture as he moved his wings and fluffed out his feathers. After that he had frequent sprinkle baths; and it was a wonderful sight to see him go thru all sorts of motions and postures, spreading out his wings and tail to their fullest extent.

Rannie was pretty from the first, a soft dove color above, with a bronze sheen on the wings and a soft white underneath the body. But he has grown more beautiful every day. At first his tail was about half an inch long. Now it is over three inches. Saturday morning (Sept. 17) Miss Jackson put a bird band on his left leg and let him go free outdoors for the first time. The number on the leg band is 29,376. For quite a while after being set loose Rannie stayed in the grapevines on the trellis near the porch. Miss Jackson went out frequently and called to him, and he would answer her with his pretty little rain-crow call.

After a while he grew bolder and flew to an elm tree in the garden, later he flew to another tall tree north of the house. And in the afternoon he answered her call from a high walnut tree by the south gate. He had come down to her a few times during the morning to be fed. She could not tell if he found anything to eat up in the vines and trees. In the afternoon he did not come down again until about three o'clock. Miss Jackson had gone out and called him, and he had flown down from the walnut tree to the grape trellis; and from there down low enough for her to reach up for him to get upon her finger. She took him in the porch then and decided to keep him in until the next day. He was ravenously hungry, so she supposed he had not found anything to eat for himself.

Sunday morning, when Miss Jackson's mother went on the porch to see Rannie he seemed rather wild and would not feed. But when Miss Jackson came down a little later he was as tame as possible and seemed quite delighted to see her, and ate a very hearty breakfast. She let him out soon after seven, and he was soon having a great time hopping and flying about and pretending to find things to eat. He picked at twigs and dead leaves and was very busy indeed. Sometimes when Miss Jackson went out and called to him he would not answer, and then she would think he had gone for good. But the next time his soft little call would come in answer to hers, and she knew where he was. He did not come down to be fed until half past noon—over five hours.

When he did come he was terribly hungry, and could not gobble his food fast enough. He remained in the trees all afternoon and when five o'clock came and no Rannie Miss Jackson had about given up seeing him again that day. But she gave a call, any way, and he answered. But still she did not think he would come down at that time. The next thing she knew he had flown against the outside of the screen, and from there onto the top rail of the trellis. Miss Jackson hurried out to him. He leaned down toward her, fluttering his wings; but would not fly down. So she held up a little branch, and he immediately flew down to it; and soon she bore him on her finger in triumph to the porch. Again he was so hungry that he ate three suppers in rapid succession.

Monday morning, as it was pouring rain, Miss Jackson decided not to let Rannie out. So he was still on his perch when she left home. But he had sat on her finger and been petted, and several times had breakfast before she left. Rannie is a beautiful and most interesting bird and Miss Jackson wishes that all bird-lovers in town might have seen him. He is the thirty-first bird she has raised.

After Miss Jackson had had Rannie a little over a week she found a grasshopper and killed it and offered it to him. He nearly went wild with delight at it up in no time. After that she got all the grubs out of the green corn and sunflower heads she could find for him, and he devoured them eagerly. He considered a cricket a very dainty dish. His first food, after his adoption, consisted of bits of tender raw meat. But after about ten or twelve days he tired of meat, and since then his main diet has been cottage cheese, of which he is very fond.

Rain-crows generally begin to migrate some time in October. Miss Jackson cannot tell how long Rannie will stay about her home. But she would be glad to think that anyone who happened to see the bird about town, if such a thing should occur, would be careful that no harm came to him. He could be easily identified as Miss Jackson's Rannie by the bright aluminum band on his left leg. It is not likely that he would fly down to anyone else. But such a thing is possible; and if he should, she hopes that he will receive the gentle treatment to which he has been used.

Rannie had several calls besides his regular rain-crow call. After he had been with Miss Jackson several days he began giving a call that sounded just like that of a distant screech owl. For a couple of weeks he gave this call more than any other. Now he uses that and the rain-crow call both. But when he is up in a tree he usually gives the rain-crow call.

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

ILLINOIS MEETS IOWA OCTOBER 15

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—While there are three Western Conference gridiron clashes before Oct. 15, there will be two games on that date that are expected to blast championship hopes of two eleven early in the season. Minnesota which lost every Big Ten conference game last year, meets Ohio State last year's champion, at Columbus and the same day University of Illinois will battle Iowa on the Hawkeye field. Minnesota this year is well fortified with players showing excellent form in early practice, while Ohio State has many vacancies to be filled and is an unknown quantity. Despite the poor showing of Minnesota last year it has much in its favor for the coming clash. Illinois and Iowa are old rivals—both are out strong for championship honors. Illinois has lost some valuable players but has some men who are making excellent showings and are expected to step into the breach. Iowa will have the advantage of playing at home and with a majority of veterans in its lineup.

Earlier games include the clash between the University of Chicago and Northwestern University at Stagg field on October 1, and a week later the Maroons and Purdue will clash in their annual struggle and the Northwestern team will do battle with Minnesota at Minneapolis.

PIRATES DIVIDE WITH BROOKLYN

Pittsburgh Pa., Sept. 22.—Pittsburgh and Brooklyn split even on today's double header the locals winning the first 3 to 1 and losing the second 2 to 0. In the first game the visitors scored their run in the fourth inning on Griffith's double and Wheat's single.

Pittsburgh scored three runs in the eighth, on hits by Gooch, Barnhart and Carey, aided by errors of Grimes and Miller. Cooper held the visiting batsmen to six hits in the second game but both his passes were converted into runs, the first time on hits by Schmandt and Janvyn and the second time on Myers' single and Robertson's error.

BROWNS BUMP ATHLETICS TWICE
Philadelphia, Sept. 22.—St. Louis took both games of a double header today. Sisler's home run drive over the center-field wall won the second game by the score of 4 to 2, while in the opening game Davis blanked the Athletics 5 to 0. The Browns bunched their ten hits in the first game off Moore with Davis holding the locals to five hits.

CLEVELAND KEEPS PACE WITH YANKS
Boston, Sept. 22.—Cleveland won from Boston 9 to 8 in 12 innings today, thus virtually keeping pace with New York in the battle for first place. The Indians won on O'Neill's long double to right center, Pincinitter Speaker's infield out and Jameson's fast bounder which Scott could not field in time. Speaker nearly collapsed in running off his roller to Pratt, Sothorou's poor fielding of bunts, Sewell's misplay of an easy fly, which allowed two runs to score and a freak three base hit by Walters which Smith lost in the sun were the leading factors in the Boston scoring. Russell and Thormahlen were wild but the Sox work of Myers for the Red Sox and Mortimer and Caldwell for Cleveland was excellent. It was Morton's second victory in two days.

EVANS HAD HARD TIME TO WIN MATCH
St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 22.—In two spectacular matches that ended on the 35th green today in the National Amateur Golf championship at the St. Louis Country Club, Chick Evans, defending his title defeated Jesse E. Swartz of New York, by the narrow margin of 1 up and Jesse Guilford of Boston, eliminated Harrison Johnston of St. Paul by the same score bringing them together in the semi-finals tomorrow.

In a still closer contest although so thrilling in its finish, Willie Hunter, British champion, defeated Bobby Jones of Atlanta 2 up and 1 to play after being down to the Georgian nearly all day and won the right to contest the other semi-final match with Robert Gardner of Chicago, twice former champion who bested R. E. Knepper of Sioux City 4 to 2.

The most dramatic finish was furnished by the present champion, who in defending his title had to shoot 35-37-73 in the morning to lead Sweetzer by 2 up, the New Yorker having scored 37-38-75.

Evans, after accumulating a few more holes on the third nine with a 36 to Sweetzer's 38 became careless with his putter and after dropping the 32nd hole by taking three putts from twenty feet away and the 33rd where Sweetzer scored a birdie, Evans found himself only two up and three to go. He tightened his game perceptibly and dropped his tee shot on the 180 yard 34th ten feet to the left of the cup, a back spin causing the ball to spring back from where it landed. Sweetzer's drive was on the verge of the green thirty feet from the hole, but he managed to halve it in three when Evans well studied putt stopped shot because of the mud on it.

WILLIAMS LOOKS FOR GOOD SEASON
Expecting Good Team at Minnesota
—Smarting Under Loss of All Conference Games Played Last Season.
Minneapolis, Minn.—(By the A. P.)—When the University of Minnesota battle cry booms across Northrop field at the first game of the "Big Ten" schedule, Dr. H. L. Williams, veteran coach expects to have a "good team" in the field.

Smarting under the loss of all conference games played last season, the first time such a condition has prevailed in the history of University of Minnesota football, members of the football squad, backed by the entire campus, are putting forth every effort to regain the standing of the days when Minnesota teams were known as the "Giants of the North."

Answering inquiries regarding the prospect for the season, Dr. Williams overstepped his usual Quaker conversation by saying: "The prospects for a good team are good, but for a conference winner they are problematical."

Arnold Oss, half back, whose play earned him the name of the "Gopher Flash," will be back, and if a summer's hard work means anything in the life of a football player, should be in the best condition of his career. Oss spent the summer working in a blacksmith shop, with the single idea of aiding in getting himself in shape.

Festus Tierney, guard, the only Minnesota man to make the mythical All-Western team last year, is said to have corrected scholastic difficulties and will be ready to start at the opening day.

Trygve Johnson, tackle in 1918-1919, who resigned as captain of last season's team after leaving school, is expected to report as Earl Martineau, half back, one of the best men, in the opinion of many, that ever attended the university, but whose record has never permitted him to engage in a conference game.

Dr. Williams is expected to build his line around Oliver Aas, last year's freshman, the only man with the exception of Bert Baston, whom Dr. Williams found it necessary to bench because he

THIRLLING FINISHES IN COLUMBUS RACES
Periscope Wins 2:05 Trot In Straight Heats—Peter Manning Lowers Track Record of 2:01, Making the Distance in 1:59.4.
Columbus, O., Sept. 22.—Grand Circuit racing was resumed here today after a lapse of two afternoons due to rain. The program abounded in features and the spectators were entertained not only by thrilling finishes but also by the time trial of Peter Manning 1:58, who started just before sun down to lower the track record of 2:01 set nearly a decade ago by The Harvester. Accompanied by a runner the champion gelding went to a half in 59 seconds and it appeared for a moment as if he would equal his own record or break it. However, a wind blowing down the home stretch slowed him up and he passed the wire in 1:59.4.

WILSON'S SHARE OF PURSE HELD
JERSEY CITY, N. J., Sept. 22.—A precedent in championship boxing annals was set today by the New Jersey Boxing Commission when it deprived Johnny Wilson, middleweight title holder of the $35,000 purse he was to have received for his Labor Day bout with Bryan Downey, of Cleveland.

Wilson was found guilty by the commission of failing to put forth his best efforts. Withholding of the purse was deemed as the proper punishment.

The commission announced in making its decision that it was not certain as to the legality of such action and would take steps to learn the extent of its authority. Meanwhile Tex Rickard, promoter was directed to place the money in trust.

Counsel for Wilson indicated that the case would be taken to the courts for settlement.

Wilson met Downey in a 12-round affair here labor day to settle the dispute over their bout in Cleveland in which Downey claimed he had won by a knock-out but the referee had counted too slowly.

The bout was tame and uninteresting and Downey, who had tried awkwardly to floor Wilson in every round was given the decision of a majority of newspapermen. No official decision was permitted under the New Jersey laws.

James Deltrick, near Concord, came to town yesterday.

AMERICAN LEGION NEWS NOTES

"I asked her to marry me by talking with my hands like I'd seen the French do. She said yes in German; I understood that much." The war romance between a former doughboy of the Rainbow Division and the daughter of a German farmer with whom he was billeted in New York last week with the marriage of Everett C. Haughn, Columbus, O., and Fraulein Elsie Bauer, Unkelbach on the Rhine, Germany. Two of the bride-groom's buddies of the American Legion of Columbus attended him at the wedding, one acting as best man. The couple will live in Columbus.

Correspondence by airplane has been instituted between the mayor of Kansas City, Mo., and the mayor of Omaha, Neb., by the American Legion of the former city. Legion officials flew to Omaha last week with the Kansas City mayor's request to the mayor of Omaha that he board the plane for a flight to the Legion convention at Kansas City October 31. The mayor of Kansas City will fly back with the other mayor to attend the first aero congress in Omaha.

Membership in the American Legion proved its worth to Arnold Hawkins, Glencoe, Minn., after his automobile was stolen in Minneapolis recently. Shortly after the theft police scrutinized an automobile in which they found a copy of the American Legion Weekly addressed to Hawkins. The women were arrested and the automobile returned to its owner.

With handkerchiefs covering their faces as smoke masks, members of Hoboken, N. J., post of the American Legion aided in removing the bodies of 4,700 American soldiers when fire of unknown origin destroyed two of the army base's piers last week.

In the hope that the bodies of Lieut. Charles G. Little, Newburyport, Mass., and Mechanic Lloyd E. Crowell, Charleston, S. C., American Legion men killed when the giant dirigible ZR-2 exploded, will be recovered from the wreckage, the Legion post at London, England, is planning an impressive ceremony in their honor. If the bodies are returned to America, similar rites will be observed at the port of New York by the Legion of the city and state.

Arrested and facing detention in jail for trial for violating a traffic ordinance, James Anderson, Nashville, Tenn., was passing unhappy moments when his policeman escort noticed his American Legion button. "Here, I'll go your bond, buddy," he said "I wear the same button." It developed that the men belonged to the same Legion post.

With the recent receipt of their state bonus checks, members of the Sturgis, South Dakota, post of the American Legion have pledged $11,000 of their money for the erection of a $25,000 community building which is to have a gymnasium, shower bath, bowling alley, rest room and a dance hall for the entire town.

In an address formally opening the new quarters of the Holyoke, Mass., post of the American Legion last week General John J. Porshing complimented the Legion for not participating in politics.

Policies favoring navy men of the American Legion will be discussed at the first conference of the newly appointed committee on Naval Affairs of the Legion, Edward E. Spafford, New York, chairman of the committee has called the conference in Chicago, this month.

The third annual reunion of the Thirty-fifth Division, composed of Missouri and National Guard units, will be held at Kansas City on the same days as the national convention of the American Legion—Oct. 31 and Nov. 1 and 2.

Brig. Gen. Charles Dawes, Secretary of the Navy Denby, Gov. Miller and John G. Emery, national commander of the American Legion will address the third annual convention of the New York department of the American Legion at Jamestown, N. Y., Sept. 23 and 24.

Favoring the name of a private soldier who gave his life for his country during the world war to that of "some illustrious general" an American Legion post of Minneapolis, Minn., has petitioned the city board of education to name a large new high school there for Cecil Kyle, who was working his way thru college by selling newspapers and tending cows when he enlisted.

TRIBUNE PUBLISHES POEM BY WAYNE GARD

The Chicago Tribune yesterday carried the following poem written by Wayne Gard of this city.

Song
My love is like a holly leaf
I plucked in Oxford town—
This holly leaf that still was green
When other leaves were brown
The heedless years that can ne'er dissolve,
Nor can the ocean drown,
The love that with this holly leaf
I send from Oxford town.

The Narrow Wedding Ring

—Consider the wedding ring of grandmother's time with that of today.

—All things change with the times, but no where has so little change been noted until within the past year or so. The old style oval band has been the symbol of marriage.

The New Narrow Rings

—The demand for a narrow and more artistic wedding ring finally became so insistent that the strikingly beautiful ones of today is the result—the narrow, dainty, square with bevel sides engraved; and, the engraved, in platinum, green gold or yellow gold.

Certainly There's a Reason

While you might think that we are about to argue that you ought to eat Grape Nuts or drink Postum, we are going to do nothing of the kind, even if we do adopt the pet phrase of the late Mr. Post.

The thought we had in mind was this:

There's a reason for choosing People's furniture; in fact there are a number of reasons—reasons which we are glad to enumerate.

"Peoples' furniture is always of a dependable quality—it is always in good taste—it is always properly priced—it is always varied enough in scope and character to properly equip almost any sort of home.

"Peoples' furniture is not sold as so much merchandise—rather it is sold with our understanding and appreciation of the effect to be achieved in the home that it is to adorn.

And, just as though these were not reasons plenty we mention again the fact that

Daily Market Report

BULLISH INTERESTS
DOMINATED MARKETS

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Using the lower rediscount rate of the federal reserve bank as a lever bullish interests dominated the stock market today. Their operations met with a fair measure of success, altho stubbornly opposed at times by the shorts. Early advances of 1 to 2 points among the usual favorites comprising the rails, industrials and special issues were cancelled at mid-day by a series of bear drives but a vigorous rebound at the day's best quotations accompanied the finish.

PRICE OF WHEAT
TAKES UPWARD TURN

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Something of a revival in export business helped to give wheat prices an upward turn today. The market closed firm, 1 to 1 1/2¢ higher, with December $1.25 1/2 and May $1.29 1/2 to $1.29 3/4.
Corn gained 1/4 to 3/8¢, and oats a shade to 1/2¢. In provisions the outcome varied from 12¢ decline to 7¢ advance.

At first the wheat market had a downward slant owing largely to evidence that there was no present stringency of supplies even the exhaustion of stocks might come late.

Bearish sentiment, however,
lost its hold when word passed around that export interests had taken 400,000 bushels of hard winter wheat to be shipped by way of the Gulf of Mexico.

Other sales to Europe were noted later, but the quantities were withheld. Mean while, crop advice from the northwest counted to some extent as a bullish factor, gossip being current that as a result of two weeks rather a large amount of wheat had been rendered unfit for milling.

Belief in some quarters that a rally was overdue tended also to stimulate the upward swing of values, especially at the finish.

Corn rose with wheat and in consequence of crop damage reports from Iowa.

Oats followed corn.

Provisions averaged lower reflecting declines in the hog market. The smaller packers were scarcely of nearby deliveries of lard.

Chicago Livestock Market

Chicago, Sept. 22.—(U. S. Bureau of Markets.)—Cattle—Receipts 9,000; beef steers strong to ners $2.75 to $3; hams, fat sows

The Magic That Makes a House a Home

—that magic is MUSIC.

When the eyes of the little ones sparkle and they laugh with glee—when the toes of the older ones begin to waver—when Mother's face radiates happiness itself as she listens to the songs of McCormack and Gluck—when Dad is lost in reverie as those wonderful strains of Violin come to him from Kreisler and Heifetz—(isn't that, in truth, the Magic that makes a House a HOME?)

The Victrola—the Master Magician—can make your house a HOME. We'll be glad to prove it. You can buy one for as little as $25, or as much as $350—on monthly payments surprisingly small.

The Mechanical Principals Involved in Grinding

—When an engine is made new every working part is accurately finished and fitted.
—When an engine becomes worn all the wear must be eliminated.
—We eliminate piston wear, wrist pin wear, ring wear, by new parts.
—We eliminate cylinder wear by grinding. At the same time we can grind just enough more to accurately fit the new piston.
—Therefore, there is a three-fold reason for grinding:—
1st—If new pistons are needed it is cheaper to grind the cylinder to fit the piston, than to fit the piston to the cylinder.
2nd—If the cylinders are worn or scored, it is cheaper to grind them true, than to buy a new block.
3rd—If an engine is losing power, thin oil in crank case and fouls plugs.
—It costs less to repair it than to continue to operate in that condition.
—We are living in the day of progression. Efficient, thorough and lasting repairs are the only kind of repairs worth while from any standpoint.
—Ultimately, neglect, extravagant, careless methods will cost the consumer more money than he has to spend.
—Think it over.

GREENFIELD FAMILY HAD REUNION SUNDAY

Tucker Family Met In Third Annual Reunion Recently—Community High School Opens—Other Greenfield News.

Greenfield, Sept. 21. — The third annual reunion of the Tucker family was held Sunday at the home of Lurten Tucker east of town. There were about 32 present, at the noon hour a big basket dinner was served. The afternoon was spent playing games and visiting.

Miss Wilma Coates is enjoying a New York player piano.

The community high school began with an enrollment of 150. The football boys worked hard getting ready for their game with Gillespie Saturday.

During the first football practice, Doert Hermes had the misfortune to break his leg. Dr. Bulger was called and set the bone. The game Saturday was very exciting. The Greenfield boys defeated Gillespie, 41 to 0.

Miss Esther Henderson left last week for Fredricktown, Mo., where she will be instructor in expression in Marion college.

Dale Haven left last week for Philadelphia, Pa., to assist Dr. E. E. Hendrick in evangelistic work during the winter and also to continue his piano studies in New York City.

Miss Virginia Goebel has gone to Brighton to teach English and Latin in the high school of that place.

Miss Nanine Rives has gone to Indianapolis, Ind., to teach in the city schools there.

Clement Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Green of this city and Miss Lillie Simonds of Carrollton were married in Alton Wednesday by Rev. Minor Goodsell. They were accompanied by Victor Meller and Miss Gladys Green, a sister of the groom. They will reside in Carrollton this winter. Mr. Green has employment.

The B. Y. P. U. gave a farewell social for Miss Helen Hill and Miss Emily Cravens Tuesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Overby. Miss Hill takes up her work as freshman in Northwestern University at Evanston, and Miss Cravens resumes her work as senior at Shurtleff college.
